

Mission:

The mission of the Permanent Secretariat of the Congress on Accountable and Justice-Based Medical Education is providing opportunities for interaction, reasoning and sharing of national and international experience in the field of contextualizing, identifying community health needs, planning, implementing interventions to meet these needs, evaluating the results and determining the short-term and long-term effects of the actions taken with the ongoing review in the above-mentioned processes as well as creating a comprehensive look at the social accountability of education at all levels of service and at all levels of education and medical sciences fields and policymaking to review and revise all processes and structures of medical education system based on social and justice-based accountability on basis of Islamic principles and values and medical ethics to train capable and efficient human resources to provide effective health services appropriate to the changing needs of society in the country while enhancing educational justice and use the scientific and practical capabilities of faculty members and students to develop knowledge and provide new achievements from scientific research in the field of social and justice-centered accountability.